AT HOME—My Household God. ABROAD—My Vade Mecum.

A GENERAL OFFICER writing from Ascot, says: "Blessings on your 'FRUIT SALT'! I trust it is not profane to say so, but in common parlance, I swear by it. Here stands the cherished bottle, on the chimney-piece of my sanctum, my little idol—at home my household god, abroad my vade mecum. Think not this the rhapsody of a hypochondriac. No; it is only the outpouring of a grateful heart. The fact is I am, in common I daresay with numerous old fellows of my age (67), now and then troubled with a tiresome liver. No sooner, however, do I use your cheery remedy, than exit pain—Richard is himself again! So highly do I value your composition, that, when taking it I grudge even the little sediment that will always remain at the bottom of the glass. I give therefore the following advice to those wise persons who have learned to appreciate its inestimable benefits:

When ENO'S SALT betimes you take,
No waste of this elixir make,
But drain the dregs and lick the cup
Of this the perfect pick-me up."

Writing again on January 24, 1888, he adds:—"Dear Sir.—A year or two ago I addressed you in grateful recognition of the never-failing virtues of your world-famed remedy. The same old man in the same strain now salutes you with the following:—

"When time, who steals our years away,
Shall steal our pleasures too,
ENO'S FRUIT SALT will prove our stay,
And still our health renew."

FEVERS, BLOOD POISONS, &c.—"Egypt.—Cairo.—Since my arrival in Egypt in August last, I have on three separate occasions been attacked by fever, from which, on the first occasion I lay in hospital for six weeks. The last two attacks have been however completely repulsed in a remarkably short space of time by the use of your valuable 'FRUIT SALT' to which I owe my present health at the very least, if not my life itself. Heartfelt gratitude for my restoration and preservation impels me to add my testimony to the already overwhelming store of the same, and in so doing I feel that I am but obeying the dictates of duty.—Believe me to be, gratefully yours, A CORPORAL, 19th Hussars.—May 26, 1883.—Mr. J. C. ENO."

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS—Sterling Honesty of Purpose. Without it Life is a Sham.—"A new invention is brought before the public, and commands success. A score of abominable imitations are immediately introduced by the unscrupulous, who, in copying the original closely enough to deceive the public, and yet not so exactly as to infringe upon legal rights, exercise an ingenuity that, employed in an original channel, could not fail to secure reputation and profit."—ADAMS.

CAUTION.—Examine each Bottle and see that the Capsule is marked

ENO'S "FRUIT SALT."

Without it you have been imposed upon by a worthless imitation. Sold by all Chemists.

PREPARED ONLY AT

ENO'S "FRUIT SALT" WORKS, LONDON, S.E., BY J. C. ENO'S PATENT.

A CURE FOR SICK HEADACHE, SLUGGISH ACTION OF THE LIVER, SUPPRESSED GOUT, DISORDERED STOMACH AND BILIOUS ATTACKS, &c.—SIMPLE AND UNIQUE.—A gentleman writes: "December 27th, 1887.—After twelve months' experience of the value of the 'VEGETABLE MOTO,' I unhesitatingly recommend their use in preference to any other medicine, more particularly in bilious attacks; their action is so gentle and yet so effective, that nothing equals them in my opinion. THEY HAVE NEVER FAILED to give the wished-for relief. I take them at any hour, and frequently in conjunction with a small glass of ENO'S 'FRUIT SALT.'—Yours gratefully, ONE WHO KNOWS."

ENO'S "VEGETABLE MOTO,"

Of all Chemists, price 1s. 1½d., post free, 1s. 3d.

A Will cannot be made in language too simple or concise; must be written with Ink on Paper or Parchment, and signed at the end by the Testator, in the presence of two or more Witnesses, who must not be parties interested in the Will; or if written on more than one sheet, the Testator and the Witnesses should sign each sheet. The Witnesses must rigidly comply with every particular required by the Attestation Clause, at the end of which clause they must sign their names. The signature of the Testator must be acknowledged by him, in the presence of the Witnesses, and he should (after signing) take the Will in his hand, and say, "I acknowledge this to be my last Will and Testament, and request you to witness it."</
